NATIONAL EDITION OF THE WORKS OF FRYDERYK CHOPIN

The National Edition is a source-based edition – it takes into account all the available sources of Chopin's text: autographs, hand-written copies corrected by the composer, first editions and also 'teaching copies' used by Chopin for his pedagogical work, in which we may find his original fingering. Secondly, the National Edition is a critical edition, which means that the authenticity of sources has been verified and their relations to one another examined. The editors of the National Edition, Professor Jan Ekier and Paweł Kamiński, put a special emphasis on the analysis of numerous existing sources instead of reproducing the notation of a given work on the basis of a single source, or just a couple of them. Therefore, each volume of the National Edition is published with an extensive and comprehensive Source Commentary explaining the editorial intentions and the manner of interpretation of particular scores.

EDUCATIONAL MUSIC

PIANO

ALTBERG Emma (Ed.)

A Little French Fan. Selected Pieces for Piano Duet €6,95
PWM 6078

As a result of common understanding of the great didactic value of ensemble playing in the musical education of the young, interest in the repertory for four hands is growing. In an attempt to satisfy the demand for works of this type, the present little collection, intended for primary schools, avails itself of the little known French didactic repertoire. These are pieces by contemporary composers of the older generation, written mostly at the beginning of the twentieth century.

PWM 5945

Book 1 is comprised of scales and arpeggios for beginners, up to two octaves, and aims to familiarize the pupil with the major – minor system, fundamental to European music and also to encourage the pupil to learn frequently encountered figures and fingerings.

Scales and Arpeggios, Book 2 €9,95
PWM 865

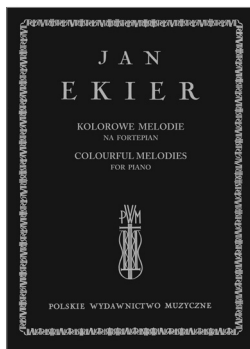

Book 2 contains diatonic scales at the octave, tenth, third and sixth, (2) arpeggios of the tonic, dominant seventh and diminished seventh, both ordinary and mixed, (3) chromatic scale and (4) whole-tone scale. All the scales and figurations should be played up to four octaves in parallel and contrary motion.

Re-release of a collection first issued in PWM's early years. It consists of 9 works that are artistic arrangements of the most beautiful Polish folk melodies from various regions, in which simple melody and rhythm are often combined with a sophisticated harmonic setting.

On account of the low level of technical difficulty, these pieces can be used by pupils of the music primary school.

GAŚNIENIEC Mirosław
Collection of Dances €15,95
PWM 11284

The pieces in this collection are all dances of various origin – Czech, Neapolitan, French, Spanish and Argentinean, some from past centuries, others – contemporary. The only piece which remains somewhat separate from the rest is the 'Barcarolle', defined as a venetian gondoliers' song. Here it is in fact quite dance-like, thanks to its 'rocking' motion and ostinato rhythm. This collection may be used as a teaching tool at music schools of the primary level.
